

ID Cards for Children under age 10

To receive an identification card for a child under the age of 10, one of the following situations must apply:

- Child has joint service couple or single parent
- Child's physical appearance has changed significantly (case-by-case)
- Child does not reside in the household of the sponsor
- Child is temporarily away from sponsor and must use a medical treatment facility