1. Situation

a. The military justice system operates to ensure good order and discipline is maintained within the Marine Corps. Without the cooperation of victims and witnesses, the military justice system would cease to function. Between 1982 and 2004, the U.S. Congress enacted a series of laws designed to provide information to crime victims and witnesses regarding their rights and position in the criminal justice system. References (a) and (b) made these laws applicable to the Marine Corps. References (a) and (b) also impose certain duties upon those engaged in law enforcement, the military justice process, and victim support activities to ensure that crime victims' and witnesses' rights are protected and that they are provided specific services.

b. Victims and witnesses often face adverse effects from crime. In the Marine Corps, victims and witnesses shall not face the effects of crime alone. In accordance with references (a) through (c) the Marine Corps' Victim Witness Assistance Program (VWAP) ensures victims and witnesses are provided with meaningful assistance once a crime is reported. The VWAP is specifically designed to lessen the effects of crime on victims and witnesses and to help them understand and participate in the military justice process. The VWAP uses a multi-disciplinary approach to assist victims and witnesses. This approach combines the services of law enforcement, family advocacy, medical, legal, and corrections personnel. The VWAP reflects the Marine Corps' on-going commitment to ensuring that victims and witnesses are treated with respect and dignity, informed of their rights, and provided with necessary information and services to assist in their recovery.

2. Cancellation. Chapter 6, MCO P5800.16A.

3. Mission. The Marine Corps executes a professional Victim and Witness Assistance Program in order to reduce the trauma, frustration and inconvenience experienced by victims and witnesses of crime; inform victims of their statutory rights; and, assist victim and witness understanding of the military justice process.

4. Execution

a. Commander's Intent and Concept of Operations

(1) Commander's Intent

(a) Marines, Sailors, and civilians serving with the Marine Corps treat all victims and witnesses of crime with dignity and respect.

(b) Commanders shall make every appropriate effort to protect victims of violence or abuse from further harm.

(c) The Marine Corps assists victims and witnesses of crime without infringing on the constitutional rights of an accused.

15 Mar 2013

(2) Concept of Operations

(a) The Marine Corps will employ a multi-disciplinary response to assist victims of and witnesses to crime. The response will focus on reducing the trauma, frustration and inconvenience experienced by victims and witnesses during the military justice and administrative process by education and assistance. Various individuals and organizations have roles and responsibilities under the VWAP to inform victims and witnesses of their rights and also assist victims and witnesses during the military justice and administrative process.

(b) Responsible authorities, as defined in enclosure (1), will, in accordance with applicable law, mitigate the physical, psychological, and financial hardships suffered by crime victims and witnesses, and make all reasonable efforts to foster their cooperation in the military justice process.

(c) Proper execution of the VWAP will lead to increased cooperation by victims and witnesses during the military justice and administrative process.

b. Subordinate Element Missions

(1) Comply with the intent of the references and the content of this order.

(2) Convening authorities shall consider victim statements on the impact of the crime when considering pretrial agreements, clemency, or sentence reduction.

c. Coordinating Instructions

(1) The VWAP is not limited to criminal offenses prosecuted at courts-martial. Crime victims and witnesses do not forfeit their status when offenses are disposed of at nonjudicial punishment (NJP), administrative separation (ADSEP) proceedings, or via other administrative means.

(2) Particular attention shall be paid to victims of violent crimes including, but not limited to, child abuse, domestic violence, rape, and sexual assault. Consult reference (d) for special considerations to victims of domestic violence. The specialized concerns and issues surrounding sexual assaults require all personnel involved in these cases to give additional consideration to the sensitive treatment of such victims.

References (e) and (f) should be reviewed when dealing with victims of, or witnesses to, an alleged sexual assault. The Marine Corps Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Office (SAPRO) supervises and has cognizance over all programs and services provided to adult sexual assault victims as defined in reference (f).

(3) This instruction is not intended to create, and does not create, any entitlement, cause of action, or defense in favor of any person arising out of the failure to provide a victim or witness the assistance outlined in this instruction. No limitations are placed on the lawful prerogatives of the Marine Corps or its officials.

5. Administration and Logistics

a. A website with VWAP references, training materials, and links to victim-related resources is located at (<http://www.hqmc.marines.mil/sja/Branches/VWAP.aspx>). (2) All investigative and law enforcement personnel must understand the VWAP and provide crime victims and witnesses the information described in this order. Law enforcement personnel shall identify victims and witnesses of crime, treat them with fairness, and respect their dignity and privacy.

(3) Threat Assessment. All investigative and law enforcement personnel have a continuing duty to take reasonable measures to protect victims and witnesses from further threat, harm, and intimidation. To that end, investigative and law enforcement personnel shall immediately assess the situation and take action to minimize the threat to the victim or witness. Investigative and law enforcement personnel shall exercise care when discussing available protective measures to avoid creating unrealistic expectations concerning the level of protection measures available.

(4) The individual in charge of a criminal investigation will ensure that victims and witnesses understand their rights under the law and this chapter and receive a completed DD Form 2701. The form shall include the name and telephone number of the investigator, the VWLO, and the cognizant command VWAC, and, when appropriate, a number to contact a victim advocate. The home address and telephone number of victims and witnesses will not be included in investigative reports unless they are specifically pertinent (e.g., crime scene at the victim's home).

(5) All investigative and law enforcement personnel shall assist victims and witnesses, upon request, in contacting the persons responsible for providing the services and relief described in DD Form 2701. The VWLO is responsible for maintaining a directory of service and relief providers and unit VWACs. Investigative and law enforcement personnel shall familiarize themselves with this directory and supply victims and witnesses with appropriate phone numbers and addresses.

(6) If requested by the victim, the individual in charge of a criminal investigation will keep the victim apprised of the status of the investigation/inquiry, to the extent it will not interfere with the investigation.

(7) If requested by the victim, the individual in charge of a criminal investigation shall promptly notify victims and witnesses when a suspect is apprehended.

(8) Investigative and law enforcement personnel shall safeguard victims' and witnesses' property held as evidence and shall assist in returning it as soon as possible.

(9) Investigative and law enforcement personnel shall ensure accurate record keeping of the total number of victims and witnesses provided with DD Form 2701. Investigative and law enforcement personnel shall report the number of victims and witnesses contacted to the installation VWLO in accordance with Enclosure (4).

(10) Notification to the Command VWAC. To ensure command VWACs are notified of criminal investigations requiring action under this chapter, the following notifications shall be made, as applicable:

(a) If both the accused and victim are military members, the individual in charge of a criminal investigation will provide the identity of the victim to the VWAC of the accused's command, the VWAC of the victim's command, and the installation VWLO.

(b) If only the accused is a military member, the individual in charge of a criminal investigation will provide the identity of the victim to the VWAC of the accused's command and the installation VWLO.

(c) If only the victim is a military member, in those instances where a DoD investigative agency is involved in the investigation, the individual in charge of the criminal investigation will provide the identity of the victim to the VWAC of the victim's command, and the installation VWLO. In those instances where the investigative agency is a non-DoD agency, the local law enforcement liaison will liaise with the non-DoD agency in an effort to obtain the identity of the victim and once identified, will provide that information to the VWAC of the victim's command, and the installation VWLO.

d. Trial Counsel

(1) Trial Counsel shall not serve as RVWLO, VWLO, or unit VWAC.

(2) Trial Counsel shall identify victims and witnesses in a case prior to preferring charges and ensure each individual receives a DD Form 2701. In most cases Trial Counsel should contact victims and witnesses prior to the preferral of charges. Victims and witnesses identified after preferral of charges shall be treated the same as those identified prior to preferral, to include issuance of DD Form 2701.

(3) After preferral of charges, provide all victims and witnesses in a case with DD Form 2702 (Court-Martial Information for Victims and Witnesses of Crime), and determine their elections as to those rights. Ensure that victims and witnesses are notified of their rights, as set forth in Enclosure (2), and provided information concerning the criminal justice process, including information regarding what to expect from the military justice system, the stages in the criminal justice process, and their respective role(s) in that process. Contact the applicable VWACs to ensure that proper support and resources are provided:

(4) Victim Notification of Case Status. When a victim has requested notification, trial counsel shall ensure, at their earliest possible opportunity, reasonable, accurate, and timely notification to the victim of the following events and procedural milestones:

(a) The pretrial confinement status of the accused, including the release or escape of the accused.

(b) The scheduling of any initial appearance of the accused before an officer or magistrate at a pretrial confinement hearing or at an Article 32, UCMJ, pretrial investigation.

(c) The date charges were referred and the nature of the charges.

(d) The acceptance of any pretrial plea agreement.

(e) Notification of the opportunity to present a statement of the crime's impact to the court at sentencing or to the summary court-martial officer or NJP authority, in compliance with applicable law.

(f) The scheduling of each court proceeding.

(g) The findings of the court-martial.

(h) The sentence adjudged.

(i) The CAA concerning the court-martial findings and sentence; to include an explanation of any clemency granted.

(j) The disposition of a case, if other than at court-martial.

(5) Witness Notification of Case Status. When a witness has requested notification, trial counsel shall ensure, as early as possible, that the witness is advised of:

(a) The acceptance of any pretrial plea agreement.

(b) The findings of the court-martial.

(c) The sentence adjudged.

(d) The CAA concerning the court-martial findings and sentence.

(e) The disposition of a case, if other than at court-martial.

(6) Victim's Right to Confer and Express Views Concerning Pretrial Plea Negotiations. Convening Authorities should consider victims' views, when offered, prior to acting on a pretrial agreement. Trial counsel shall ensure victims are aware of their ability to provide input to the convening authority. In cases in which a victim elects to provide such, trial counsel shall ensure the victim's views concerning prosecution and plea negotiations are obtained and forwarded to the convening authority prior to the signing of any pretrial agreement. A victim's input shall not be construed to impair commanders' discretion. Trial counsel should be available to consult with victims about major case decisions, such as pretrial negotiations and dismissals; however, trial counsel are attorneys for the government and do not represent victims. Therefore, during consultations, trial counsel should provide only non-sensitive data and public information, and consultations should comply with their obligations under applicable rules of professional conduct. Trial counsel should inform victims that neither the government's advocacy on their behalf nor any other effort the Marine Corps makes on behalf of a victim creates an attorney-client relationship between the victim and the trial counsel.

(7) Rescheduling of Military Justice Proceedings. Trial counsel shall ensure, as soon as possible, that all victims and witnesses who have been scheduled to attend military justice proceedings are notified of any schedule changes that may affect their appearances.

(8) Separate Waiting Room. During court-martial proceedings, trial counsel shall ensure that victims, victim witness support personnel, and prosecution witnesses are provided, if desired, with a waiting area that is separate from, and out of the sight and hearing of, the accused and defense witnesses.

(9) General Assistance at Trial. Trial counsel shall inform victims and witnesses about the availability of services such as transportation, parking, childcare, lodging, and courtroom translators or interpreters, and shall assist in securing needed services.

(10) Notification of Employer. Upon request by the victim and/or witness, the trial counsel shall take reasonable steps to inform that person's employer of the reasons for that person's absence from work.

(11) Victim's or Witness's Property. When trial counsel has possession of a victim's or witness's property, trial counsel shall safeguard the property held as evidence and shall return it as soon as possible with due consideration of the possibility of appeals and other post-trial requirements.

(12) Sentencing. Trial counsel shall inform victims of the opportunity to present evidence to the court at sentencing. In compliance with applicable law and regulations, the victim may submit a statement concerning the impact of the crime, including financial, social, psychological, and physical harm suffered by the victim.

(13) Post-Trial Information. At the conclusion of a court-martial resulting in a conviction, trial counsel shall inform victims and witnesses of basic information about the post-trial process and provide each with a completed DD Form 2703 (Post-Trial Information for Victims and Witnesses).

(14) Post-Trial Confinement Status of Accused. At the conclusion of every court-martial in which confinement is adjudged, including summary courts-martial, as a part of the ongoing duty to notify victims and witnesses of the rights and services available, trial counsel shall confer with each victim and witness to determine whether the respective victim or witness desires to receive information about the confinement status of the accused. Additionally, trial counsel shall complete a DD Form 2704 and shall ensure copies are provided to:

(a) The confinement facility.

(b) Victims and witnesses whose entitlement to receive information has been certified by trial counsel (victim and witness copies shall be redacted so that only that particular victim's or witness's information is visible).

(c) The responsible VWACs (VWAC copies shall be properly redacted).

(15) Data. Maintain data on the number of victims and witnesses provided DD Forms 2702 and 2703, and the number of victims and witnesses, using DD form 2704, which elected to be notified of a prisoner's status change. Ensure all VWAP data is entered into the CMS record for each victim and witness in each case.

(16) Cases on Appeal

(a) When relevant (i.e., once there has been a conviction resulting in an approved sentence of death, one year or more of confinement, or a punitive discharge), trial counsel or other designee must provide victims and witnesses basic information regarding the appeals process.

(b) Trial counsel shall determine whether victims and witnesses elect to receive further information and updates regarding appeals. If they do, trial counsel shall forward their contact information and a copy of the DD Form 2704 to OJAG, Code 46. Such information shall be transmitted directly to Code 46 by separate correspondence (such as email or letter) and shall not be appended to the Record of Trial.

(c) In cases remanded for rehearings on findings and/or sentence, coordinate with Code 46 to re-assume the role as primary point of contact for victims and witnesses associated with the case.

(17) Pornography. Trial counsel shall be aware of the requirements associated with victims of child pornography. Victims in child pornography cases have the same rights as victims in other cases. Assistance is available via CMC (JAM).

e. Brig and Pre-trial Confinement Facility (PCF) Commanding Officers/Officers-in-Charge

(1) Victim and Witness Assistance Program. Establish a local VWAP for persons entered into the program through receipt of a DD Form 2704 or through the personal request of victims and witnesses identified on a DD Form 2704.

(a) The brig/PCF commanding officer (CO) or OIC shall appoint, in writing, a Confinement Facility VWAC and an alternate VWAC. Note: Reference (j) uses the term "Victim and Witness Coordinator" (VWC) instead of "Victim Witness Assistance Coordinator" (VWAC). Care should be taken to avoid confusion, as the confinement facility VWAC, as defined in this order, is the same as the VWC as defined in reference (j). The confinement facility VWAC must be a mature individual who understands the importance of the program and shall be sensitive to the needs of victims and witnesses and ensure their confidentiality.

(b) Before assuming the duties of confinement facility VWAC, the individual shall be briefed regarding the responsibilities detailed in applicable references and any other relevant instructions issued by higher authority. Personally Identifiable Information (PII) of a victim or witness shall not be disclosed to any prisoner or any third party at any time by the confinement facility VWAC.

(c) The confinement facility VWAC will ensure information on Victim Witness screens in the Corrections Management Information System (CORMIS) is accurate, up-to-date, and complete. Information in CORMIS will be used by the confinement facility VWAC and the central repository CMC (PSL-Corr) for managing the program and generating reports.

(2) Request for Notification. The initial notification requirement will be sent to the brig/PCF by the trial counsel using a DD Form 2704. Receipt of a DD Form 2704 shall be documented in CORMIS by the confinement facility VWAC. Initial verification of the receipt of a DD Form 2704 is to be made at the time of confinement of an adjudged prisoner. A DD Form 2704 must accompany all prisoners, even if there are no witnesses or victims. If a DD Form 2704 does not accompany an adjudged prisoner at the time of confinement, the Duty Brig/PCF Supervisor shall notify, in writing, the confinement facility VWAC and Brig Senior Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge immediately (i.e., within 12 hours). Contact with trial counsel concerning a delinquent DD Form 2704 shall be made by the confinement facility VWAC no later than the next working day. All attempts to obtain a delinquent DD Form 2704 shall be fully documented in CORMIS. If a DD Form 2704 remains delinquent more than 2 working days, the CO or OIC shall attempt to resolve the deficiency using the chain of command. CMC (Physical Security and Law Enforcement (PSL) (Corrections)) will use reports derived from CORMIS to monitor and track non-receipt of a DD Form 2704 for adjudged prisoners and closely coordinate with the regional Legal Service Support Section and the cognizant Convening Authority to ensure expedient resolution of identified issues. Failure to present a completed DD Form 2704 at the time of confinement shall not be grounds for the brig/PCF to refuse a prisoner.

(3) Request Received. If a request for notification is received by a brig/PCF directly from a victim or witness by means other than a DD Form 2704, the confinement facility VWAC will determine if the individual is a bona fide victim or witness by reviewing the initial DD Form 2704 and conferring with the trial counsel or SJA for the case. If the confinement facility VWAC determines that the person is a bona fide victim or witness, a DD Form 2704 should be prepared by the trial counsel certifying the individual as a victim or witness and indicating the victim's or witness's election to be notified. The trial counsel shall provide the DD Form 2704 to the brig/PCF.

(4) Prisoner Individual Confinement Records. Individual confinement records of prisoners included in the victim and witness program will be identified by placing a white label on the outside of the file with the letters "VW" written at least one (1) inch high in black. A brig/PCF-specific number will be assigned to the case and placed on the white label.

(5) Victim/Witness Notification Record. The confinement facility VWAC will maintain a separate adjunct file by individual name of the prisoner, cross-referenced to the brig/PCF-specific number. The brig/PCF-specific number will be developed using the brig/PCF's CORMIS unit identification code (UIC), the year and month the prisoner's case was adjudged, and a sequential number of the file for that calendar year (e.g., 31001 10-11 001). All contact with a victim or witness, including telephonic and unsuccessful contact attempts, shall be documented in CORMIS, showing the date, time, type of contact, phone number/address used, staff name, and reasons for the contact, and outcome of contact.

(6) Types of Notification and Time Frames. DD Form 2705, Victim/Witness Notification of Inmate Status, is used to advise victims and witnesses of all release and release-related activities, transfers, and escapes. Unless a shorter period is prescribed below, notification should be made at least 45 days prior to the relevant action. All correspondence shall be sent certified mail, return receipt requested. The receipt shall be filed in the Victim and Witness Notification Record. If any certified mail is returned, the confinement facility VWAC shall attempt contact via telephone, and document that attempt.

(a) Initial Contact. The confinement facility VWAC shall send an acknowledgement of request to participate in the program to victims and witnesses within ten working days of receipt of the DD Form 2704. A completed DD Form 2705 (section I; section II, block 3, 4, 5 and 6; section III, block 8.a and 8.b; and section V) shall be included with the initial enrollment letter.

(b) Clemency/Parole Hearing. The confinement facility VWAC shall notify victims and witnesses at least 45 days in advance (or as soon as a date is established) of clemency or parole hearings held by the cognizant military Clemency and Parole Board (C&PB). The confinement facility VWAC shall notify victims and witnesses of their right to request a personal appearance at the parole hearing and to submit statements (written or taped) to the appropriate C&PB describing the impact of the crime on their lives. The confinement facility VWAC shall refer requests from victims and witnesses to appear in person before a C&PB hearing to the appropriate C&PB. Personal appearances before the brig/PCF disposition board are not authorized.

(c) Release. When a prisoner is to be released the confinement facility VWAC shall notify victims and witnesses through the use of a DD Form 2705, providing the date, reason for release, and destination (city and state). In parole cases, include location, phone number, and name of the parole officer. Notification should be made as soon as release is scheduled. Telephone contact shall be made when the prisoner is unexpectedly released and a DD Form 2705 would not be received by the victim or witness prior to the prisoner's release.

(d) Escape. The confinement facility VWAC shall notify victims and witnesses telephonically as soon as possible after discovery of an escape. Victims and witnesses shall also be notified telephonically of the prisoner's apprehension and return to confinement. This information shall be entered in CORMIS or provided to another service's central repository, as applicable, by the most expeditious means (facsimile, e-mail, telephone, etc.). Written follow-up notification shall also be mailed.

(e) Transfer

1. The confinement facility VWAC shall notify victims and witnesses of all planned transfers and include the address of the receiving brig/PCF. The victim and witness information will be hand delivered at the time of transfer or forwarded via certified mail to the CO or OIC of the receiving brig/PCF. If CORMIS is utilized by both facilities involved, data will be available to the gaining brig/PCF upon prisoner arrival.

2. The confinement facility VWAC of the receiving brig/PCF shall notify victims and witnesses of the prisoner's new location and enrollment in the brig/PCF's victim and witness notification program within ten days of the prisoner's arrival.

3. If transferred to the United States Disciplinary Barracks (USDB), the confinement facility VWAC shall provide the original victim and witness information to the cross country chasers (via sealed envelope), which will be hand delivered to the Victim/Witness Coordinator at the USDB, Fort Leavenworth, KS.

4. If transferred to a civilian confinement facility, the confinement facility VWAC shall deliver the original victim and witness information to the Victim/Witness Coordinator and/or in processing personnel at the receiving civilian confinement facility. Copies of all victim and witness information shall be provided to the USMC central repository.

(f) Emergency Leave. The confinement facility VWAC shall notify victims and witnesses prior to the prisoner's release on emergency leave. This will normally be done by telephone.

(g) Death. The confinement facility VWAC shall notify the victim or witness within ten days of the death of the prisoner.

(7) Notification Request Cancellation.

(a) A victim or witness may request removal from the notification program by written request only. The request must be addressed to the brig/PCF where the prisoner is currently confined. All requests for removal shall be maintained in the prisoner's file.

(b) After three unsuccessful attempts to contact a victim or witness, at least once by certified mail, a brig/PCF may request cancellation of a victim's or witness' participation in the program from CMC (PSL-Corr). Requests shall be submitted in writing, providing full justification and a description of what efforts have been made to contact the victim or witness.

(8) Contact or Communication with Victims or Witnesses. Prisoners will be instructed that contact with any victim or government witness either directly or through a third party without written permission from the brig/PCF CO or OIC is prohibited. This prohibition includes, but is not limited to, contact via telephone, in-person visits, written letters, e-mail, social media or any other manner of personal, written or electronic means. Prisoners desiring to communicate with victims or witnesses may submit a Form DD 510, Request for Interview, requesting permission from the CO or OIC. If directed by the CO or OIC, the confinement facility VWAC will contact victims or witnesses and ascertain their desire regarding contact with the prisoner. This requirement applies whether or not the victim or witness has elected to participate in the VWAP.

(9) Training. All brig/PCF personnel will be provided information about the VWAP and staff responsibilities at least annually.

(10) Repository Reports. Confinement facility VWACs shall ensure all VWAP information is entered in CORMIS within five days of the end of each quarter (i.e., by January 5, April 5, July 5, or October 5, as applicable). CMC (PSL-Corr) will compile the information and submit a consolidated report for inclusion into the annual report submitted to the Under Secretary of Defense (Personnel and Readiness) (USD(P&R)).

(11) Pretrial Detainee. Responsibility for notifying a victim or witness regarding the status of a pretrial detainee rests primarily with the prisoner's command and the trial counsel. The confinement facility VWAC should be prepared to advise remote commands, including duty officers in the absence of the primary command contact, of the appropriate action when events dictate (e.g., escape, emergency leave, etc.).

(12) Records Disposition.

(a) Transferred Prisoners. Victim and witness records shall be delivered or forwarded separately from the prisoner's record upon transfer. All victim and witness documents, to include DD forms 2704 and 2705, shall be placed in a sealed envelope marked "FOR COMMANDING OFFICER EYES ONLY" and hand delivered or mailed via certified mail to the gaining brig/PCF CO or OIC.

(b) Released Prisoners. All documents pertaining to victims and witnesses shall be maintained in a secure and separate manner from the prisoner record for two years after the prisoner's full term release date. After the second anniversary of release, all victim and witness information shall be destroyed in accordance with service regulations regarding PII. Under no circumstances shall victim and witness documents be forwarded to the archives for storage.

(c) Victim/Witness Data. CMC (PSL) will retain indefinitely all victim/witness data contained in CORMIS.

(13) Internal Controls. Brig/PCF COs and OICs are responsible for establishing internal controls to ensure all information held on victims and witnesses is kept strictly confidential and that no unauthorized person(s) or any prisoner(s) shall access the information. All victim and witness information shall be placed in a separate envelope stamped on both sides "EXEMPT FROM RELEASE UNDER FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT. ONLY CMC (ARSF) CAN AUTHORIZE RELEASE OF INFORMATION." In addition, a cover sheet will be placed inside the envelope on top of the material stamped "ALL VICTIM AND WITNESS INFORMATION IS EXEMPT FROM RELEASE UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT. ONLY CMC (ARSF) CAN AUTHORIZE RELEASE OF INFORMATION." The Victim and Witness Notification Program shall be included in the brig/PCF standard operating procedures. In addition, VWAP shall be included in the brig/PCF's functional adequacy inspections conducted by CMC (PSL) and the Commanding General's Inspection Program.

5. Service Provider Roles and Responsibilities

a. Installation Marine and Family Programs (MF)

(1) Inform crime victims and witnesses about VWAP rights, services, and assistance when they receive counseling, treatment, or advice, if such information has not already been provided.

(2) Ensure that victims and witnesses in a case understand the rights afforded them under the law and this chapter, and are provided with a completed DD Form 2701 if one has not already been provided.

(3) Ensure processes are in place to maintain data on the number of victims and witnesses who received DD Form 2701.

(5) Legal assistance attorneys shall not serve as a RVWLO, VWLO, or unit VWAC.

Victim and Witness Assistance Program Reporting
