

Reporting Retaliation

Retaliation includes one of the following actions when taken against a Service member because that member made or is preparing to make a protected communication, such as reporting a criminal offense. Service members and Department of the Navy personnel shall not retaliate against a Service member because the member reported a criminal offense and may be punished under the Uniform Code of Military Justice as an orders violation under Article 92.

Ostracism	Reprisal
Wrongfully excluding a military member from social acceptance, privilege, or friendship with the intent to do any of the following: inflict emotional distress, discourage the reporting of a criminal offense, or otherwise discourage the due administration of justice.	Taking or threatening to take an unfavorable personnel action, or withholding or threatening to withhold a favorable personnel action, or any other act of retaliation against a DoD member.
Restriction	Maltreatment
Preventing or attempting to prevent members of the Armed Forces from making or preparing to make lawful communications to Members of Congress and/or an Inspector General.	The cruelty toward, oppression of, or maltreatment of any individual subject to one's orders.
